Local Ministry - $97,433.56

City Beat Dream Center - $6,000 towards $8,000 goal

Founded in February 2015, CityBeat has evolved into a thriving organization that has developed a wide array of outreach programs. It all started as a dream. Pastor Jared Michael happened to find a sermon online by Pastor Matthew Barnett, the founder of the Los Angeles Dream Center. Inspired by Pastor Matthew's heart to "find a hurt and heal it, find a need and fill it," Pastor Jared began to imagine a similar organization right here in Baltimore - a beacon of light that would help bring hope to communities.

Breathe - $7,500 towards $11,000 goal

An outreach program located in Harford County, MD that finds and meets needs in our communities and beyond. From toy drives, clothes, food and so much more. Inspired by the scripture Ezekiel 37:9 ". . . Breathe into these, that they may live again."

The Well - $6,000 towards $8,000 goal

For 10 years, The Well has been a safe haven for trafficked women and otherwise, in the Curtis Bay community, touching the lives of thousands every year. For 5 years, Hon's Honey, a program of The Well, has employed women survivors, so they can develop a wide range of skills, manage financial independence, and provide for their families.

They provide over 40 different programs, initiatives, services and relief by approximately 5,500 volunteers throughout the year.
